Changes to Registration

During the open registration period through the last day of the drop/add period, students can make schedule changes through the online registration portal (WC Portal, My Academics tab).

After the drop/add period ends through the last day to withdraw each session, students may use the online Drop/Add form, which is located in WC Portal, My Academics tab, under Drop/Add form.

Late Registration: Students may not register for any course after the course has met for one class period.
